All the provisions relating to the transfer of Equity Securities in the Articles shall be applicable to such transfer. PROVIDED that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such Person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Equity Securities, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payments of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the Equity Securities until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

- 7.2 If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any Equity Security in respect of which the notice has been given, may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. The Member shall however retain the right to all dividends declared before the call was made and which have not been paid, as well as the right to dividends declared after the call but before the date of forfeiture in which latter case however, his right shall only extend proportionately up to the amount actually paid by him. This shall be without prejudice to any subtraction, from such dividend/s due to him, of all sums of money payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to Equity Securities of the Company as provided in the Articles.

- 7.3 A forfeited Equity Security may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the Equity Security on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer in favour of the Person to whom the Equity Security is sold or disposed of, who shall thereupon be registered as a holder of the Equity Security. At any time before a sale or disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may deem fit.

- 8.1 The Company may by extraordinary resolution convert any paid-up Equity Securities into stock and re-convert any stock into paid-up Equity Securities of any denomination, provided that in the case of listed Equity Securities it shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Exchange as in force from time to time in making any such conversion or re-conversion.
- 8.2 The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the Equity Securities from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances permit, and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the Equity Securities from which the stock arose.
- 8.3 The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the Equity Securities from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets upon a winding up) shall be conferred by any amount of stock which would not, if existing in Equity Securities, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
- 8.4 Such of the Articles as are applicable to paid up Equity Securities shall apply to stock, and the terms Equity Security and Member therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

9 PLEDGING OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND DEBT SECURITIES

11 GENERAL MEETINGS

- 11.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act the annual general meetings of the Company shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint.
- 11.2 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- 11.3 The Directors may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever they think fit. If at any time there are not sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum for a meeting of the Directors, any Director, or any two Members of the Company holding at least ten per cent (10%) of the Equity Securities conferring a right to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company, may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors and shall give notice thereof as provided below. Furthermore, the conduct of the said meeting shall be as provided below.
- 11.4 A general meeting of the Company shall be deemed not to have been duly convened unless at least twenty-one (21) days-notice shall have been given in writing to all Members entitled to receive such notice in terms of these Articles, the law, or the applicable Listing Rules. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it was given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect and scope of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.
- 11.5 The notice period referred to in Article 11.4 shall be reduced to fourteen (14) days provided the following conditions are satisfied:

- 11.5.1 the general meeting in respect of which notice is given is not an annual general meeting;
 - 11.5.2 the Company offers the facility to holders of Equity Securities to vote by electronic means in accordance with the provisions of 11.11 of these Articles;
 - 11.5.3 a resolution reducing the period of notice to not less than fourteen (14) days has been duly passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the Equity Securities of the Company. Such resolution shall be valid until the following annual general meeting.
- 11.6 Notice of every general meeting shall be given to
- 11.6.1 every registered Member except Members who (having no registered address in Malta) have not supplied the Company an address for the giving of notices to them, and
 - 11.6.2 the Directors, and
 - 11.6.3 the auditor or auditors for the time being of the Company
- Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 3 14, no other Persons shall be entitled to receive notice of general meetings.
- 11.7 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any Person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of a meeting.
 - 11.8 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and the auditors, the election of Directors, the appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of Directors and the auditors.
 - 11.9 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present, in person or by proxy, at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided Members holding in the aggregate more than fifty per cent (50%) of the nominal value of the issued Equity Securities entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, shall constitute a quorum.
 - 11.10 A Person shall be entitled to receive notice of, participate in, and vote at a general meeting if such Person is entered as a holder of Equity Securities on the register of members on the record date and any change to any entry on the said register after the record date shall be disregarded in determining the right of any Person to attend and vote at the meeting.

11.11 The directors may establish systems to:

11.11.1 allow Persons entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company to do so by electronic means in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Listing Rules; and 11.11.2 allow for votes on a resolution on a poll to be cast in advance.

11.12 Should the directors establish any system referred to in Article 11.11 any references in these Articles to attendance and voting at a general meeting shall apply mutatis mutandis to attendance and voting by electronic means or to the casting of votes in advance, as applicable.

11.13 The Directors may require proof and may establish systems aimed at confirming the identity and the rights of a Person to attend and cast votes at general meetings. Provided that such proof shall be proportionate to the achievement of the aforesaid objectives.

11.14 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, howsoever called, shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, provided that the first meeting was duly convened in accordance with the Articles, the adjourned meeting is held at least ten (10) days after the final convocation is issued and that no new item is put on the agenda of such adjourned meeting. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not yet present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Member or Members present shall constitute a quorum.

11.15 The Chairman of the board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company or, if there is no such Chairman, or if he shall not be present within twenty (20) minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

11.16 At the commencement of any general meeting, whether annual or extraordinary, the Chairman may set the procedure which shall be adopted for the proceedings of that meeting. Such procedure shall be binding on the Members.

11.17 If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Members shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

11.18 The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unattended or unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting

Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

11.19 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be determined and decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands by;

- (i) the Chairman of the meeting; or
- (ii) by at least ten (10) Members present in person or by proxy; or
- (iii) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total voting power of all Members having the right to vote at that meeting; or
- (iv) a Member or Members present in person or by proxy holding Equity Securities conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being Equity Securities on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total sum paid up on all the Equity Securities conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost together with an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without need for the proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

PROVIDED that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been passed on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at that meeting, whether in person or by proxy, a Member or Members holding in the aggregate at least the required majority in value as aforesaid.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

11.20 Except as provided in Article 11.22, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

11.21 In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

11.22 A poll demanded on the election of the Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

- 11.23 Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of Equity Securities, on a show of hands every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote, and on a poll every Member shall have one vote for each Equity Security carrying voting rights of which he is the holder or for which he holds a valid proxy as the case may be.
- 11.24 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of Equity Securities have been paid.
- 11.25 No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- 11.26 Every Person entered into the register of members kept by the Company shall, subject to the provisions of Article 11.27, be entitled to appoint one Person to act as proxy holder to attend and vote at a general meeting instead of him. The proxy holder shall enjoy the same rights to participate in the general meeting as those to which the Member thus represented would be entitled.
- 11.27 Where a Person whose details are entered into the register of Members is holding shares for and on behalf of third parties, such Member shall be entitled to grant a proxy to each of his clients or to any third party designated by a client. The said Member shall be entitled to cast votes attaching to some of the shares differently from the others.
- 11.28 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Office or at any other place in Malta as may be specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, or by electronic means in accordance with the Listing Rules, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the Person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. The provisions of this Article 11.28 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the revocation of the appointment of a proxy.
- 11.29 Any Person acting as a proxy holder may hold a proxy from more than Member without limitation to the number of Members represented. Where a proxy holder holds proxies from several Members, he may cast votes for a certain Member differently from votes cast for another Member.
- 11.30 In the case of voting by a show of hands, a proxy who has been mandated by several Members and instructed to vote by some holders of Equity Security in favour of a resolution and by others against the same resolution shall have one vote for and one vote against the resolution.
- 11.31 A form of instrument of proxy shall be in such form as will allow a Member appointing a proxy to indicate how he would like his proxy to vote in relation to each resolution.

- 11.32 The instrument appointing the proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- 11.33 Where a Member specifies in the proxy form how his proxy is to vote, the proxy form itself shall constitute the vote.
- 11.34 An ordinary resolution shall be a resolution which complies with article 135 of the Act, namely a resolution passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company holding in the aggregate shares entitling the holder or holders therefore to more than fifty per cent (50%) of the voting rights attached to Equity Securities represented and entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 11.35 An extraordinary resolution shall be a resolution which complies with article 135 of the Act, namely a resolution which
- (i) has been taken at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the text of the resolution as an extraordinary resolution and the principal purpose thereof has been duly given, and
 - (ii) has been passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting holding in the aggregate not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) in nominal value of the Equity Securities represented and entitled to vote at the meeting and at least fifty-one per cent (51%) in nominal value of all the Equity Securities entitled to vote at the meeting.

Provided that, if one of the aforesaid majorities is obtained but not both, another meeting shall be convened within thirty (30) days in accordance with the provisions for the calling of meetings to take a fresh vote on the proposed resolution. At the second meeting the resolution may be passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting holding in the aggregate not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) in nominal value of the Equity Securities represented and entitled to vote at the meeting. However, if more than half in nominal value of all the Equity Securities having the right to vote at the meeting is represented at that meeting, a simple majority in nominal value of such Equity Securities so represented shall suffice.

- 14.3.1 Any Member or number of Members, and who in the aggregate hold not less than five percent (5%) in nominal value of shares having voting rights in the Company shall be entitled to recommend to the Nominations Committee a fit and proper Person for appointment as a Director of the Company, but no Person shall be or become entitled to act or take office as a Director unless approved by the Nominations Committee. The Nominations Committee shall be empowered to reject any recommendation made in accordance with these Articles if in its considered opinion the appointment of the Person so recommended as a Director could be detrimental to the Company's interests or if such Person is not considered as fit and proper to occupy that position.

14.3.3 For the purpose of enabling Members to make recommendations in accordance with the provisions of Article 14.3.1, the Company shall grant a period of at least fourteen (14) days to Members to nominate candidates for appointment as Directors. - 14.5.3 Directors elected by Members pursuant to Article 14.4 may be removed by an ordinary resolution of those Members entitled to vote for their election at a general meeting of the Company.
- 14.5.4 Without prejudice to the above provisions, the Company may, notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Director, by ordinary resolution remove any Director. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service, or contract of services, between him and the Company in the event that any such contract of service or contract for services is terminated. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 17 below, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a Director removed from office.

15 THE NOMINATION COMMITTEE

- 15.1 The Board of Directors shall appoint a Nominations Committee (in this Article 15 referred to as the “Committee”) consisting of a minimum of three (3) Directors. The Committee shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board.
- 15.2 The Members of the Committee shall be appointed as aforesaid from amongst their number.
- 15.3 The Board of Directors shall set out the terms of reference of the Committee and shall keep the same under review from time to time.

- 15.5 In the exercise of its functions the Committee shall ensure that appointments to the board are made on merit and against objective criteria; and that Persons whose candidacy is approved and recommended to Shareholders are in a position to dedicate sufficient time and resources to the job.
- 15.6 The Committee should strive to achieve consensus on the recommendations it makes to Shareholders, however where such consensus cannot be achieved, decisions shall be made by a majority vote. In the event that a member or members of the Committee dissent(s) with the majority view on any particular matter, that member or member(s) (as the case may be) shall be entitled to make a dissenting report to the board setting out the reasons as to why they dissent from the majority opinion expressed in the Committee’s recommendations. In such circumstances the Board shall be empowered to reverse a majority decision of the Committee.
- 15.7 No member of the Committee shall be present while his nomination as a director of the Company is discussed at a meeting of such Committee.
- 15.8 The Committee shall periodically assess the skills, knowledge and experience of individual directors necessary for the board to have the appropriate level of skill, competence and experience that would endow the board with the requisite collective knowledge and skill necessary for the proper functioning of the Company and its oversight by the Board of Directors and shall report and make its recommendations on this to the board. If in the opinion of the Committee the then current compliment of the board provides the Board with the appropriate skills, knowledge and experience and that there would be no value for the Company to change the then current composition of the Board, the Committee may determine that any retiring directors shall be eligible for re-appointment to their office.

- 15.9 The Committee shall, without prejudice to its own role of identifying appropriate Persons who are fit and proper to occupy the office of director of the Company, to periodically assess the structure, size, composition and performance of the Board. The Committee shall, from time to time, make recommendations to the Board for approval policies and procedures to ensure that they meet the requirements that the Nominations Committee may consider appropriate for the proper and effective oversight of the Company's business.
- 15.10 The Committee shall when it considers it appropriate so to do with a view to seek individual directors of the right calibre, skill and knowledge required at the board, issue a request for Persons with the right qualifications, skills, knowledge and experience to express their interest in acting as non-executive directors on the board. Any expressions of interest so received shall be evaluated by the Committee in accordance with the provisions of these articles.

 - 17.2.3 if he violates any of the undertakings made by such director to the company in the applicable contract of service, any form pursuant to which such director shall have submitted his application to become a director, or the declaration of secrecy required of him under these Articles and the Directors pass a resolution that he has so violated the declaration of secrecy; or
 - 17.2.4 if he is prohibited by applicable law from being a Director; or
 - 17.2.5 if he is removed by ordinary resolution from office pursuant to, or otherwise ceases to be a Director by virtue of, the Act; or

17.2 6 should he become of unsound mind, be convicted of any crime punishable with imprisonment, or be declared bankrupt during his term of office.

17.3 Any vacancy among the Directors may be filled by the co-option of another Person to the office of director, made by the board of Directors on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee.

17.4 Any vacancy among the Directors filled by virtue of a co-option as aforesaid, shall be valid until the next annual general meeting, when the director so appointed shall be one of the non-executive directors and shall be eligible for re-election.

17.5 In the event that at any time and for any reason the number of Directors falls below the minimum number established by the Memorandum of Association, notwithstanding the provisions regulating the quorum, the remaining Directors may continue to act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, PROVIDED they shall with all convenient speed, and under no circumstances later than three months from the date upon which the number of Directors has fallen below the minimum, convene a general meeting for the sole purpose of appointing/electing the Directors

18 ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

18.2 The alternate Director must be a serving Director.

19 COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS

The Directors may fix the remuneration of members appointed to act on such committees and working groups.

20 REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

- 23.4 Without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Act, the Directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company available for distribution any such sum as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than Equity Securities of the Company) as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which they think prudent not to divide.
- 23.5 Subject to any rights of Persons, if any, entitled to Equity Securities with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Equity Securities in respect whereof the dividend is paid but no amount paid or credited as paid on the Equity Securities in advance of calls shall be treated for the purpose of this regulation as paid on the Equity Securities. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Equity Securities during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any Equity Security is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such Equity Security shall rank for dividend accordingly

In the case of an Equity Security held by joint holders, any one of such holders may give an effective and valid receipt for all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of an Equity Security and payments on account of dividends or other

Every such payment shall be effected at the risk of the Person entitled to the dividend or other moneys payable in respect of an Equity Security and shall be deemed a good discharge to the Company. The Company is not responsible for amounts lost or delayed in the course of making the payment as aforesaid.

23 8 No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any Equity Securities held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued Equity Securities or Debt Securities of the Company to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution;
